1. Congressman Hillings' office called to state that the Congressman wished to talk with me, but when I arrived for the appointment a roll call vote made it necessary for Mr. Hillings to be absent, and I talked with Mr. Price, his Administrative Assistant. The matter immediately at hand was to give me a document which purports to be a roster of army officers in Nicaragua. The source has checked the names of those officers he considers to be communistic. Cong. Hillings received this roster while on his recent trip to Europe. It was given to him by
